

MEDIA RELEASE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 2018

Rail EA negotiations to continue

The Combined Rail Unions today met with Sydney Trains and NSW Trains officials to continue negotiations over new Enterprise Agreements at the two rail entities.

Unions NSW Secretary Mark Morey said that some progress was made, but significant issues still need to be resolved.

“We will be having further meetings early next week,” Mr Morey said.

“We are absolutely determined to secure a fair outcome for workers, and a safer and more reliable rail service for commuters.”

Media Contacts:

Stewart Prins 0487 119 790